REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Response to Amendment

The declarations filed on November 17, 2006 under 37 CFR 1.131 are sufficient to overcome the Hopkins reference.

Allowable Claims

Claims 1-31 are allowed.

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: A thorough search of the prior art of record did not disclose any reference, alone or in combination with other reference(s) that teaches or fairly suggests a disposable undergarment having front and rear body panels with respective first and second crotch edges wherein said crotch edges each comprise at least one longitudinally extending slit formed therein.

The closest prior art of record is U.S. Patent Application Publication No. 2003/0115660 to Hopkins, now U.S. Patent No. 7,047,572. A detailed description of the teachings of Hopkins is of record in the Office action mailed August 14, 2006. In light of the aforementioned declarations submitted under 37 C.F.R. 1.131 and the statement of common ownership of the prior art of Hopkins and the claimed invention at the time the invention was made (see Remarks filed November 17, 2006), all rejections of the claims over the prior art of Hopkins, alone or in combination with other references, under 35 U.S.C. 102 and 35 U.S.C. 103 have been successfully overcome.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
